TESTIMONIAL
From One of Our Valued Customers

(We selected this one to share (out of many) because Joey really takes the time to explain his choice:-)

With so many resale and PLR sites swarming the internet nowadays, it's extremely difficult to know who you can trust for the latest and greatest collections.

With just 1 link, I assure you that those days are over. I happened to stumble upon this site by circumstance one day and I have visited it every day since. PLR Content Source has one of THE LARGEST collections of PLR products I have ever come across. In fact, this site has now become my "Homepage" on all my web browsers, including those on my cell, tablet and PCs.

Not only do they have EVERYTHING you can imagine, they're prices are OUTRAGEOUSLY INSANE! Massive collections for LESS than the cost of just 1 or 2 items elsewhere -- and I'm not talking about crap-junk either. I'm talking about the latest and greatest offerings.

BUT, not only do they offer the largest selections at the fairest of prices, the amount of UNIQUE content is unreal as well. They seriously must have an enormous team researching and spitting out UNIQUE products so you're always sure to find something BRAND SPANKING NEW that you can't get elsewhere...

In addition to having the largest and most complete collection of PLR products on the internet, their support is second to absolutely NONE!!! Due to the extensive collection of products offered, I expected to have to wait 3 or 4 days for a response from their support staff when sending an inquiry. Once I sent my request, I continued on with other things and before I could even finish the project at hand, I had a response; and it wasn't a fluke either. I continued to hold a conversation with them over a few days and each time, the responses were timelier than the one before.

I have now committed myself to looking here first, and many times so far, ONLY looking here, whenever needing new content for my own creations.

I am not saying that this site 'should' be in everyone's bookmarks, I'm saying it's a MUST HAVE resource!!!

Best of all, once you purchase anything from them, you will NOT receive a slew of download links leading to various download sites that you'll need to bookmark so you know where to find your purchases later, you receive a single, very straight-to-the-point PDF file, which contains all the download links for each package you purchase, allowing you to have instant access to any of the download links whenever you need them (this is something I plan on adopting on several of my own sites from here on out as well).

Now, whenever I need to re-download an item or two, I simply open the PDF file, find the item I need in the document, click on the link and VOILA! No messy download areas, no complicated log-in areas and no secret long URLs you can't remember. Nope! Getting to your download links is just as easy as opening a PDF file (stored on your own computer)!

If you couldn't tell, I really have nothing bad to say about PLRContentSource, it is one hell of a find and one I plan on using constantly. Not only will it save me time and money, but I now have a virtually unlimited supply of UNIQUE, one-of-a-kind sources to use for my own creations.

But, for those who are cynical, if I HAD to have something negative to talk about, it would have to be the flip side of the coin.

They offer such an enormously massive collection of items, it can be kind of confusing at first. That, however, is easily overcome by doing one (or more) of a few things.

1. Use their easy to locate search form (located at the top of every page).
2. Use their navigation menu and go through every link until you find exactly what you're looking for.
3. Contact their support team and ask for assistance. On the (very unlikely) off-chance that you're looking for something you can't find there, they'll help you locate it, just to ensure you're satisfied.

And if you're the type who likes ratings, here you go...

ON A SCALE OF 1 TO 5 (1 being not so good and 5 being awesome)

1. EASE OF USE - 4 STAR
   Site is SO MASSIVE, it can be hard to locate items -- use the tips above and that problem is solved.

2. SALES STAFF FRIENDLINESS - 5 STAR
   They actually listen to you and make you feel like your important.

3. AMOUNT OF AVAILABLE CONTENT - 8 STAR (yes, 8)
   Like having a never-ending source/supply, you can NOT leave that site without finding tons of items you can check off your wish list.

4. SUPPORT TIME / FRIENDLINESS - 5 STAR
   Again, they actually listen to you and make you feel like your important.

5. EASE OF PURCHASE ACCESS/DOWNLOADS - 8 STAR (yes, another 8)
   I LOVE the way they keep the downloading process as simple as possible.

Yes, I know you can't have "8" on a level of 1 to 5, but seriously folks, you have got to try PLR Content Source a try, you will NOT be sorry and they will be one of, if not THE BEST, resource in your toolbelt, bar NONE!!!

Oh, by the way, talk about being able to save money, I have also been able to cancel 4 memberships I am a part of because with just 2 packages found on the PLRContentSource website, I had EVERYTHING (and more) that I could have found on the membership sites.

If you haven't given PLR Content Source a try yet, WHAT THE H* ARE YOU WAITING FOR!!! You really are missing out. You will NOT be sorry!
